

House Policies

House policies apply to all guests entering the NarroWay Theatre.

- No outside food or beverages are permitted inside the NarroWay Theatre.
- Photography, videotaping and audio recording are strictly prohibited.
- The use of cell phones and other electronic devices, including text messaging, or any other device that causes distraction is prohibited.
- NarroWay reserves the right to determine what is considered to be a distraction.
- Smoking is prohibited inside the facility.
- Guests arriving late will be seated at an appropriate time at the discretion of the House Manager.
- Guests exiting the theatre during a performance will be permitted re-entry only at an appropriate time according to the discretion of the House Manager.
- Meals are served by the performing cast. Therefore, dinner guests arriving late may forfeit the meal.
- Dinner guests should plan to arrive 10-30 minutes prior to the advertised time.
- Guests not having dinner should arrive within 15 minutes of the advertised time.
- Each show must meet minimum attendance requirements.
- NarroWay reserves the right to eject any persons who fail to abide by House Policies or otherwise distract from the event.